VETS is launching the Off-Base Transition Training (OBTT) Pilot Program this month!

OBTT consists of 10 separate, two-hour modular workshops, offered in two formats: In-Person and Virtual (online). Participants can sign up for as many or as few workshops they desire to attend. These workshops were specifically developed to target veterans, including those currently serving in the Reserve Component (National Guard and Reserve Members), and their spouses.

Please encourage all interested veterans and their spouses to register for individual workshops!

Resource Release: EARN website redesigned to increase disabled veteran employment outcomes and inclusion

The Department of Labor's Employer Assistance and Resource Network on Disability Inclusion (EARN) recently launched a completely redesigned website in effort to help employers and HR professionals recruit, hire, retain, and advance people with disabilities in the workplace, especially veterans. Specific information on Hiring Disabled Veterans and the Mental Health Toolkit, along with a suite of new online courses, checklists, and policy guides are now housed in one place to help employers create more inclusive workplaces.
