Role of the Outreach Coach

- Work with the NVTAC Data Analyst to identify regions with high populations of homeless and at-risk veterans not currently served by an HVRP grant
- Educate underserved regions about the services and benefits of HVRP
- Inform communities of the HVRP grant recipients in their area and how to collaborate with them

NVTAC Overview

NVTAC Role (1 of 2)

- Provide technical assistance designed to increase grant recipients' ability to establish and operate successful HVRP grants
- Support HVRP grant recipients throughout their period of performance to ensure that challenges are resolved quickly
- Provide effective training and peer-to-peer learning opportunities that result in increased knowledge and adoption of innovative practices among HVRP programs nationwide

NVTAC Role (2 of 2)

- Provide technical expertise to federal staff to assist in policy development in support of program oversight and strategic planning for the future of HVRP
- Quantify grantees' customer satisfaction and share promising practices and lessons learned

HVRP Overview

HVRP Overview (1 of 2)

- What is HVRP?
 - A job-focused federal grant
- Who funds HVRP?
 - U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans' Employment and Training Service (DOL/VETS)
- How long does HVRP funding last?
 - The grant lasts for three years, with funding provided yearly. All start-up, implementation and follow-up activities are included in this time.
- Why HVRP?
 - To provide veterans experiencing and at risk of homelessness with the training and tools they need to build successful careers

Title 38 United States Code (U.S.C.) Sections 2021, 2021A, and 2023 and the Public Law under which fiscal year (FY) 2024 funding is appropriated for this program

HVRP Overview (2 of 2)

- Provide career exploration, training, and supportive services to veterans at risk of or experiencing homelessness, helping them find good jobs with livable wages in stable, high-demand fields
- Build strong partnerships between public, private, and nonprofit organizations that work with or employ veterans experiencing homelessness. This helps deliver equitable services to marginalized veterans to overcome barriers to employment

HVRP Umbrella

- HVRP includes three specific programs:
 - Homeless Veterans' Reintegration Program (HVRP)
 - Incarcerated Veterans' Transition Program (IVTP)
 - Homeless Women Veterans and Homeless Veterans with Children (HWVHWC)

HVRP Core Services (1 of 4)

- Knowledge of Population: Understand the unique needs of the veterans in their area and tailor services to those needs
- Outreach, Recruitment, and Engagement: Use a flexible and non-threatening approach to meet veterans where they are. Outreach also includes activities to engage partners and employers
- Intake: Screen potential participants to (a) determine eligibility; (b) provide the veteran with program information; and (c) select appropriate participants for program enrollment

HVRP Core Services (2 of 4)

- Assessment: Collect information on the participant's education level, employment history, barriers to employment (i.e., skill deficits), service needs, and strengths
- Case Management: Offer client-centered services designed to address barriers and develop employment plans, ensure access to training and supportive services, connect participants with high-quality career opportunities, and provide continued support before and after job placement

- Job-Driven Training (JDT): Provide training that is targeted to the specific industries, occupations, and skills that are in demand locally
- Placement: Assist participants to become employed based on their employment goals either through direct service, referrals, or the participant themselves

HVRP Core Services (4 of 4)

- Collaboration: Partner with public and private partners to provide supportive services and access to housing
- Retention and Follow-Up: Provide ongoing support to track participant outcomes and promote job retention

HVRP Participant Eligibility

HVRP Participant Eligibility

To qualify for HVRP services, an individual must:

1. Meet the definition of a “veteran;” and
2. Meet the definition of “homeless” or “at risk of homelessness”

HVRP Participant Eligibility: Veteran

- Eligible participants must be a “veteran,” which is a person who served in the United States Armed Forces with at least one day of federal active duty
- More information on the veteran definition can be found in 38 U.S.C. 101.

HVRP Participant Eligibility: Homeless and At Risk of Homelessness

- Veterans served by HVRP include:
 - Veterans experiencing homelessness as defined in the Homeless Emergency Assistance and Rapid Transition to Housing \(HEARTH\) Act of 2009
 - Veterans at risk of homelessness
 - Veterans participating in a partner program
 - Veterans who are returning home from jail or prison
 - Formerly incarcerated veterans who are at risk of homelessness

Want to Become an HVRP Grant Recipient?

Scope of Need (1 of 2)

According to the 2023 Annual Homelessness Assessment Report \(AHAR\) to Congress people identified as American Indian, Alaska Native, or Indigenous:

- Were four percent of all people experiencing homelessness
- Twice as likely to be experiencing unsheltered homelessness than sheltered homelessness
- Showed a large percentage increase in both sheltered and unsheltered experiences of individual homelessness between 2022 and 2023, both of which rose by 18-19 percent (or 2,860 people total)

Scope of Need (2 of 2)

- According to the 2023 Annual Homelessness Assessment Report \(AHAR\) to Congress, veterans who identify as American Indian, Alaska Native, or Indigenous made up a higher share of the unsheltered veteran population than the sheltered (5% vs 2%)
- According to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs and U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, this community serves in the military at a higher rate per capita than any other race or ethnicity, and yet, they are proportionally over-represented per capita in the population of Veterans facing homelessness
