Appendix A: Eligibility Definitions

Veteran Definition

The term “veteran” is defined in 38 U.S.C. § 101\(2\) as “a person who served in the active military, naval, air, or space service, and who was discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable.”

Eligible participants must be a “veteran,” which means a person who served in the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, Space Force, Coast Guard, or Reserve Component (National Guard or Reserve), who meets the following criteria:

- Received a discharge or release under conditions other than dishonorable (see 38 U.S.C. § 101(18)); and
- At least one day of active duty (see 38 U.S.C. § 101(21)) to include time spent in basic training for active-duty members; or
- Federal active duty for National Guard and Reserve members (does not include inactive or active duty for training as defined in 38 U.S.C. §§ 101(22) and (23)); or
- Any period of inactive duty or active duty for training during which National Guard and Reserve members received a service-connected disability rating resulting from a disease or injury incurred or aggravated in the line of duty (see 38 U.S.C. § 101(24)).

Important things to note about this definition include:

- There are no minimum days of service to determine eligibility.
- The veteran can have any character of discharge except dishonorable.
- Veterans with more than one period of service may have different characters of discharge (more than one issued DD-214). One other-than-dishonorable discharge qualifies the person as an eligible veteran, even if their most recent discharge was dishonorable, if they meet at least one of the eligible veteran criteria listed above.
- A veteran who is appealing their dishonorable discharge must be successful in the appeal before they meet the definition of an eligible veteran.
- This definition includes any period of inactive duty or active duty for training during which National Guard and Reserve members received a service-connected disability rating resulting from a disease or injury incurred or aggravated in the line of duty, meaning the individual received a VA disability rating and is able to provide a copy of the VA Summary of Benefits letter to verify the service-connected disability rating.
 - For example, consider a National Guard or Reservist who gets injured during annual training. Even if they have never been on Title 10 orders, the service member could file a claim, and the VA could still provide a service-connected disability rating. If the veteran receives this rating at the time of enrollment into the HVRP, they are considered an eligible veteran.

- Title 38 U.S.C. § 101 Veterans' Benefits Definitions does not state that the disability must be compensable, only that the veteran received a service-connected disability rating. This would include a zero percent rating.

Homeless or Participant in Partner Services Criteria

- Homeless per the Homeless Emergency Assistance and Rapid Transition to Housing (HEARTH) Act of 2009
 - Includes individuals who were homeless but found housing during the 60-day period preceding the date of HVRP enrollment (recently housed);
 - Includes those at imminent risk (within 14 days) of homelessness; or
- Participant in Partner Services
 - Housing and Urban Development-Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing (HUD-VASH); Tribal HUD-VASH
 - Native American Housing Assistance and Self Determination Act of 1996
 - Transitioning from Certain Institutions
 - SSVF Rapid Re-Housing (RRH)

Transitioning from Certain Institutions

The term “veteran transitioning from certain institutions” means an eligible veteran meeting the following definition per 38 U.S.C. § 2023:

A veteran who:

- Is a resident of a penal institution or an institution that provides long-term care for mental illness; and
- Is at risk of homelessness absent referral and counseling services provided under the program.

For HVRP, an at-risk determination for this specific definition involves factors deemed appropriate by the grant recipient; however, a grant recipient is not allowed to determine that a veteran is at risk if the veteran is not scheduled to be released from incarceration or an institution within 18 months (at the time of enrollment in HVRP). Please note that individuals qualifying under this category of veterans do not need to meet the “at risk of homelessness” criteria.

A penal institution includes any federal, state, county, local, and city facilities such as prisons, correctional centers, detention centers, reentry centers, penitentiaries, and jails.

At Risk of Homelessness Definition

The following eligibility categories require meeting the “veteran at risk of homelessness” definition:

- Veterans who, at program entry, are at risk of homelessness within 15-60 days (veterans who are at risk of homelessness within 14 days are considered at “imminent risk” and are defined as homeless); and
- Veterans recently released (within the last 18 months) from incarceration who are at risk of homelessness.

The term “veteran at risk of homelessness” means meeting at least one of the following criteria:

- Veterans who meet the criterion for extremely low income; or
- Veteran recipients of welfare and/or public assistance; or
- Veterans referred from the following VA programs:
 - Substance Use Residential Rehabilitation Treatment Program, or
 - Domiciliary Residential Rehabilitation Treatment Programs (DRRTP), or
 - Veterans Justice Outreach Program – VA Homeless Programs, or
 - Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) Residential Rehabilitation and Treatment Program, or
 - Compensated Work Therapy/Transitional Residence Programs; or
- Veterans who are at risk of losing their current housing with no alternative safe housing options immediately available to prevent them from moving to an emergency shelter or another place described in the homeless definition (i.e., will enter emergency shelter, including Emergency Housing Assistance or Safe Haven, transitional housing, or a place not meant for human habitation).

Please note that veterans meeting the definition of homelessness, transitioning from certain institutions, or participating in a partner program do not need to meet the definition of “at-risk of homelessness.” Veterans who are within 14 days of homelessness are considered at “imminent risk” and are defined as homeless.

To determine whether a veteran meets the “at risk of homelessness” criterion for extremely low-income limits, grant recipients will use the most recent HUD Income Limits. To find the applicable income limits, grant recipients will use the following instructions:

- Access the HUD Income Limits homepage.
- Under the current year, under the “Query Tool” tab, click on “Click Here for FY 20XX IL Documentation” button.
- Select the state and county or HUD Metropolitan Fair Market Rent/Income Limits Area (HMFA) in which the participant resides at the most local level.
- Use the income limit under the “Extremely Low-Income Limits” category, selecting the appropriate number of persons in the family (number of individuals living in the household, to include the veteran), to determine whether the veteran meets the income criterion for “at risk of homelessness.”
